

Massey named board president

Bridgewell, a nonprofit organization based in Lynnfield that provides human services throughout the North Shore and Merrimack Valley, has announced its 2009 board officers.

Gloucester resident Gordon Massey will serve as Bridgewell's 2009 board president for a second year. Massey has been a Bridgewell board member since 2004, and is a vice president at Salem Five Bank.

Other 2009 board officers are board vice president Carla M. Saccone, who is vice president for programs of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (MSPCC) and a resident of Melrose; board treasurer David E. Brown, executive director, Financial Services Advisory Group of Carlin Charron and Rosen LLP and a resident of Acton; and board clerk and secretary Catherine J. Flood, an attorney with Flood Law Offices in Lowell and a resident of Lowell.

Copyright © 1999-2008 cnhi, inc.

Photos

Staff Photographer